By Grace Alone

words and music by elwood

D Bm So many times I've tried to be acceptable, G A and so many times I've fallen on my face. It doesn't matter how far or how high I go, I know I am dependent on Your grace.

So many times I've become discouraged, because the plans I made didn't quite come true. But thats just another step in my progression, another way You're making me like You.

CHORUS

By Grace Alone Can I come to You, By Grace Alone There's nothing I can do, By Grace Alone You will see me through.
