

Hello Lord It's Me

words & music by elwood

Hello Lord it's me,
I bet You wonder where I've been,
I know that You know I've been away.
I've been off on my own ,
Tryin' to find my own way,
I know I should know better than to stray.

CHORUS

*But here I come again,
Runnin back to You like a friend,
Hopin' You'll hide my sin,
Just like You did before,
Could you do it once more.*

Hello it's me again,
Yea it's been a while,
I know I let things get out of control.
I thought that I'd be fine,
Steppin' cross the line,
But inches are miles with the soul.

CHORUS

Yea it's me,
Crawling' on my knees,
Just when I thought I was standing tall.
It really doesn't help,
When we just give a little,
It only works when we give it all.

CHORUS 2

*Here I come again
Runnin back to You like a friend,
Knowing You've hidden my sin,
And You did it once and for all.
Once and for all.*

©1997 by elwood mcelveen, jr.
written 12/10/97
Romans 6:6&7