

Here I Am

words & music by elwood

Whatever it's worth, I'm here and I'm waiting for my destination You have made it oh so clear and I'm ready for Your call

Worthless and completely broken
I am nothing without Your love
I have heard the words You've spoken and I'm ready to give my all

Here I Am
All Yours Lord
Here I Am
Listening to You
Here I Am

You alone I want to live for
You are everything that's right Where I'm goin' You have been before Show me the way to go
