

Blessings of Love

words & music by elwood

Twinkle, twinkle little star,
How I wonder what you are?
All I know is, your're a blessing of love.

In time we all will know,
We will wait for Him to show,
That you are a blessing of love.

*Blessings of Love,
Sent from the Father,
He'd like to know,
It's really no bother.
How can we know,
Which ones should stay,
Which ones should go,
They all matter,
Blessings of Love.*

Don't always come at perfect times,
At least not in our minds,
Thank God, He knows more than we do.

So grin and bear the thought of it,
Have faith, you all will fit.
And know God takes care of you.

Chorus

Bridge:

*I don't pretend to know your situation,
But I think you know right is right,
Without the vote of a nation.
They all matter,
Blessings of Love.*

©1994 by Elwood McElveen, Jr.
written 05/94 before the birth of Addison Reid McElveen