

Carried Away With Love

words & music by elwood

It started out when he was twelve,
He met her at the grocery store.
He was baggin', and she was buyin',
How could they know it was so much more.
And as he carried her bags to the car,
He thanked the stars above,
Little did the two of them know,
They'd be carried away with Love.

A few years later on a summer day,
They gathered at the church.
There was no doubt, it was guaranteed,
This thing was gonna work.
As he got to the door of the church,
He gently picked her up.
From that day forward,
Forever more,
She'd be carried away with Love.

*They ran across some rough times,
When they felt like givin' up.
But when the going gets tough,
The tough live on Love.*

Many years later on a rainy day,
They both were laid to rest.
No matter what life threw their way,
Somehow they passed the test.
And as the family carried them,
Up the hill to lay them down,
Yes indeed,
Sure enough,
They'd been carried away with Love.

©1994 by elwood mcelveen, jr.
written 11/15/94