

Fortune-Teller

words & music by elwood

Take my hand, Read the line,
You've got the vision, I got the time.

Take it easy, Don't go too fast,
Read it slow, Make it last.

Read it right, Read it true,
Read that I'm, In Love with you.

*You're my fortune-teller,
You're my fortune-tell, teller,
My fortune-teller that's what you are,
From the palm of my hand to the farthest star.
You've got my heart, soul, and body too.
All I want is to be with you.*

Don't be blind, You've got to see.
You're the future, Of all of me.

Look ahead, Now don't you lie,
My love is somethin, That I can't hide.

You've found the secret, In my hand,
It's my palm, Yea, I'm your man.

You are my love, You know I'm right!
Forget my hand, And look in my eyes.

*You're my fortune-teller,
You're my fortune-tell, teller,
My fortune-teller that's what you are,
From the palm of my hand to the farthest star.
You've got my heart, soul, and body too.
All I want is to be with you.*
