

Goodbye Wormwood

---

words & music by elwood

Goodbye Wormwood, it's over now.
You won some battles but you lost the war.
The Enemy has returned, you know what you're in for.

Evil spirits you've been runnin' wild,
All over this world.
Tellin' lies you wear the disguise,
Good times in this life.

The power of His mighty sword,
Will wipe you from the face of the earth.
Got no hope you know you can't cope,
You'll be lyin' face down in the dirt.

Come on Satan, He's got somethin for you,
You know you can't compete,
Only satisfied when all have died,
You'll be lyin at His feet.

Goodbye Wormwood, it's over now.
You won some battles but you lost the war.
The Enemy has returned, you know what you're in for.

©1993 by Elwood McElveen, Jr.

Based on C.S. Lewis character from "The Screwtape Letters"