

I'm Into Family

words & music by elwood

It's true there are fortunes to be made in this world.
You can own the land as far as you can see.
But Gold and Diamonds don't mean as much.
As things you receive completely free.

*I'm into family,
I'm into laughter,
I'm into things that money can't buy.
I'm into old songs,
And the hereafter,
And love that never dies.*

You can work all day, you can work all night.
You can work your poor fingers to the bone.
But when its over its said and done,
Everything you've worked for will be gone.

*I'm into family,
I'm into laughter,
I'm into things that money can't buy.
I'm into old songs,
And the hereafter,
And love that never dies.*

Bridge:

Well it's ok to work hard,
And it's ok to sweat.
But no one's worked their way into Heaven yet!

CHORUS

©1993 by Elwood McElveen, Jr.
written 11/30/90 while mowing the yard

□□□Times New Roman