

Lord, Here I Come Again

words & music by elwood

Lord, there You go again,
Makin' me feel so good.
You know I never doubted it,
I always knew You could.

I know I don't deserve it,
I know I never will.
But it feels so good to know,
That You love me still.

Chorus

*Lord, here I come again,
In need of You're loving care.
No matter how far I go away,
I know You'll always be there.*

Each time I go away,
To do things on my own.
You're there just waiting,
For me to come back home.

You comfort me with that Love of Yours,
That no one can explain.
And you make me feel just fine,
No matter how bad the pain.

Chorus

*Lord, here I come again,
In need of You're loving care.
No matter how far I go away,
I know You'll always be there.*
