

Love Is Enough For Me

---

words & music by elwood

Well I'll never be a rich man,
And I'm content not to try.
Just a few things is all it takes,
To keep me satisfied.

Love and money don't mix to well.
Trials that can bring,
And of the two I believe,
Love is the finer thing.

*Love is enough for me.
Is it enough for you?
When loves the bond between two folks,
There's not much they can't do.
Love is enough for me.
And I'm ready to make that stand.
I'm ready to show this whole world,
If you would just take my hand.*

Money comes and money goes,
But that is what it's for.
It's just here for us to use,
And it ain't nothing more.

I like the finer things,
I am not going to lie.
But I would rather base my life,
On things you can not buy.

*Love is enough for me.
Is it enough for you?
When loves the bond between two folks,
There's not much they can't do.
Love is enough for me.
And I'm ready to make that stand.
I'm ready to show this whole world,
If you would just take my hand.*

©1993 by Elwood McElveen, Jr.