

Secret Weapon

words & music by elwood

When I've got
A little problem,
I know just where to go.
He knows my very heart,
He even owns my soul.

I run
straight to Him,
No waiting I get right in.
No time to waste you see,
He's always there for me!

CHORUS

*I've got a Secret Weapon you see.
The gates of hell can't stand against me.
He said it and I believe, I've got a
Secret Weapon and He does the fightin', He does the fightin' for me.*

On my knees
In the dark,
That's the best place I could start.
He hears me loud and clear,
He hears every part.

I know
He'll answer me,
And in time I will see.
He always knows what's best,
I bow my head He'll do the rest.

CHORUS

*I've got a Secret Weapon you see.
The gates of hell can't stand against me.
He said it and I believe, I've got a
Secret Weapon and He does the fightin', He does the fightin' for me.*
