

Such A Lonely Place

words & music by elwood

Saw you last night by the water
With the tears in your eyes
You just can't believe it
I've been there before
A broken heart is such a lonely place.

Can't believe that he'd go and leave you
Leave you here so all alone
A note on the table
Tears in your eyes
A broken heart is such a lonely place.

*You can search the ends of the earth
But there's just no way
You won't find anything worse
A broken heart is such a lonely place.*

Now you stand in the middle of crowd
People all around
But still you feel alone
There's no one inside
A broken heart is such a lonely place.

*You can search the ends of the earth
But there's just no way
You won't find anything worse
A broken heart is such a lonely place.*
