

Tears

words & music by elwood

 G D
The tears that no one sees
C G
God hears them fall
 G D
Those tears you hide away
C D
God counts them all

He knows your every heartache
He understands your fears
He will soothe your wounded spirit
And wipe away your tears

 C
In the middle of the storm
 D
On the brightest shining day
 G
You're just as close
 C
He's no further away

 C
He knows where you are
 D
Like the stars and the moon
 G D
So just be still and listen
 G C D
God hasn't moved

The creator of your soul, knows you by name
The promises He's made are yours to claim
He's not some distant star on which to gaze
He's right there where you are, and that's where He'll stay
