

The Picture

words & music by elwood

He was simple man,
Didn't have a whole lot of things.
But he knew who he was,
And just why.

He had a wife and family.
He was all that you see.
There were no walls,
And nothing hid behind.

But if you ever talked to him for any amount of time,
There was always something he would say.

CHORUS

*Here's a cross, here's a Man,
Don't you understand,
The high cost that was paid,
To set you free.
Go ahead, keep the picture,
And think about the price.
And what will you do with the Man,
Jesus Christ.*

Well he always had that picture
In his pocket
Like a salesman
With a business card

He would show it to everyone
Deciding for no one
To tell is all
Theirs to keep or disregard

Seeing faith so true, it isn't really hard
It was clear in the simple words he'd say

CHORUS

You can take or leave every person in history
None will require you to choose
But without the Cross all else is lost
It's decided and you lose

©2009 by Elwood McElveen, Jr.