

This Day That Will Last Forever

---

words & music by elwood

All the planning we've done has come to an end.
Our day is finally here.
The ones we love, our family and friends,
Are gathered oh so near.
The day we've longed for will soon be gone.
Photographs will someday fade.
But the memories we'll have will last so long.
As will the promises we've made.

*From this day that will last forever,
When two hearts become as one.
Joined by Love,
From God above.
We'll love our lives away.
From this day that will last forever.*

Time will come and time will go,
The years go by so fast.
From now on we both know,
Our love will always last.
A love so simple, yet so true,
That grows day by day.
And I'll fall deeper in love with you,
Each step along the way.

*From this day that will last forever,
When two hearts become as one.
Walking through the years,
Sharing smiles, sharing tears,
We'll love our lives away.
From this day that will last forever.*

*And from now on,
We will always be together.
We will always be together.
From this day that will last forever.*

©1993 by Elwood McElveen, Jr.
written for David & Debbie Bush's wedding.