

Victory Is The Lord's

words & music by elwood

A
thats his job and he does it well
D
to remind you all those times you fell E A
but you can tell the devil, Go to Hell

Its where he belongs and where He'll stay
When Christ comes again someday
And then the Lord will throw the keys away

The victory is the Lords
The victory is also yours
D E
He came to give us life
A D
And that we'd have it right
The victory is the Lords

And on this crazy world we ride
Sometimes we can't believe our eyes
And we're looking for a place to hide

It seems that evil has it made
And the righteous they are wiped away
But He'll come riding in to save the day
