

Whose Song

words & music by elwood

*Whose Song,
Will you be singin,
When the Lord decides to come back.
Whose Song,
Will you be singin,
When the Lord takes the throne.*

So many songs you can sing now-a-days,
So many people to praise.
Let me tell you this right from the start,
You better give Jesus your heart.

*Whose Song,
Will you be singin,
When the Lord decides to come back.
Whose Song,
Will you be singin,
When the Lord takes the throne.*

Radio makes the superstar,
Air waves spread both near and far.
Play a song till it makes you sick,
And then they'll make another pick.

*Whose Song,
Will you be singin,
When the Lord decides to come back.
Whose Song,
Will you be singin,
When the Lord takes the throne.*
